PUBLIC NOTICE

Government of India gazette notification dated 10/05/2023 is self explanatory, Government has not given any modified directions in this regard.

It has been brought to the notice of Maharashtra Medical Council that, third party message in news that old Registered Medical Practitioners (RMPs) are required to check Indian Medical Register (IMR) and Indian Medical Register (IMR) link has been created and circulated and making it viral through social media.

As per viral message Registered Medical Practitioners (RMPs) are getting into panic mode and searching for their Indian Medical Register (IMR) details and notice disparity in the Indian Medical Register (IMR) Data.

It is further clarified that, National Medical Commission, New Delhi has not provided electronic format or software to file the application yet, therefore till such time most of sections/clauses are not executable.

It is further informed that, as per practice Maharashtra Medical Council has send official data for updating in Indian Medical Register (IMR). It has been noticed that data updation is in progress with National Medical Commission, New Delhi. Considering above facts, it is hereby appeal to all stakeholders not to rely upon fake/viral social media information.
